

The Whistler Telemark Festival

0800: Meet near Merlin's at Blackcomb Daylodge.

- Telemark skiers are easy to find - just look for the BC Telemark flags (and people in bendy boots)
- Please try to arrive promptly in order to sign waivers and purchase discounted lift tickets (40% off is $71.40 plus tax). You CAN download a waiver from HERE, sign it ahead of time, and go quicker through the line up.
- Don't forget your helmets as they are required for our insurance. Any helmet will do and you can rent one at Blackcomb.

0830: Introduction and forming groups for the morning clinics based on abilities and interests.

- Please show up well before 8:30 so you can have your waiver signed and be ready to go. It's always awkward to be the last one!

0845: Groups leave for a morning of skiing.

- Bring a phone/camera and post your photos to #WTF2015 or the BC Telemark Facebook page (prizes awarded for best photos and more!)
- Prizes will also be given for those who dare to dress (or ski) retro!

1145: Lunch with your group at Glacier Creek Lodge

- We'll try to save some tables, either outside on the ground level patio area or in the quick cafe area (to the left as you enter the lodge).
- Bring your lunch or purchase food/drinks in the Lodge.
[If you are late, this is a good place to find a group to ski with!]

1245: Upload on the Jersey Cream Express important not to be late!*

1300: All festival skiers meet at the top of the Jersey Cream

[If you are late, this is also a good place to connect with the group for the afternoon]

1310: Full group tele-drop down the Jersey Cream run - chaos and total tele-domination!

1320: Whatever your group wants to do for the afternoon.

- One option is to try the Dual Slalom course (GMC Race Centre on Cougar Milk) which available to us in the afternoon.
- Prizes for the best times and more. Bonus prizes for anyone that beats Shane (National Telemark Team and World Cup Racer)

16:00: Meet at the Whistler BrewHouse in the village.

- Order some food and drinks at the "good guy" prices.
- Recap with videos and photos of the day.
- Prizes awarded, as well as draws for some great swag - you have to be there to win!.

1830: All done! See you next year!
